3. Staff report on various items for the month of March 2016 (Continued from the meeting of April 5, 2016). (16-1523)

Staff reported that the budget deliberation will be held next month and the Commission meeting will be held in Conference Room 743.

4. Continued discussion, review and possible action related to the County wide first responder (Los Angeles Police Department, Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department, Los Angeles Fire Department and County of Los Angeles Fire Department) training specific to interacting with people with intellectual disabilities, autism, neurological disorders and mental health deficits (Continued from the meeting of April 5, 2016). (15-3758)

Kate Movius of Autism Interaction Solutions shared an update report that Lieutenant John Gannon had put together a statistic report combined with it's called Mile Simulator that simulates certain scenarios that involved a mentally ill, whether suicidal or missed their medications that put the Deputy into a real life situation and have to figure out how to de-escalates. The Deputies have a morning training program and mind training in the afternoon whereas specifically discussed autism and developmentally disabilities and introduced these Deputies to the families or people living with autism . They have hands on exercises that decrease their discomfort, distractions and anxiety with noises blurring and their vision steward. I asked them t take a test with a non-dominant hand wall. The results were very satisfying in the community. Law enforcement personnel were notoriously difficult when it comes to assessment of their training. This is our nice template report to be submitted to the Board of Supervisors or to different cities.

Commissioners Jerry Velasco, Jesse Gabriel, Barry Waite, Larry Kaplan, Andrew Friedman, Jess Talamantes and 1st Vice Chairperson Azita Fatheree provided their comments.

After discussion, Ms. Movius provided informative answers.

1st Chairperson Azita Fatheree asked for volunteers to a subcommittee formation on this issue. The following who responded were 1st Vice Chair Azita Fatheree, 2nd Vice Chair Paul Philips and Commissioner Jesse Gabriel.

On motion of Commissioner Jerry Velasco, seconded by Commissioner Larry Kaplan, this issue was approved.

Arnold Sach, a member of the public, addressed the Commission on financial responsibility.

After discussion, and by Common Consent, there being no objection, this item was received and filed.
